Call Debrief: Twelve calls in December - six aid, one river rescue, one fire, one body recovery one AFF two wires down.

Officer's Reports:

Lt. Cefalu:

Lt. Wolf:

Capt. Moore:

Chief Doleshel: Hospitals are full variant is to peak in Feb. For the time being mask and test are required before all meetings. We are short manpower; be careful we can't afford to lose anyone else. 111 calls in 2021 ten percent where in December. Howard is now captain and designator patalion 88. Reminder when responding to calls be sure to have the appropriate PPE or you will be sent home. Maintenance nights starting next month we are going to start switching crews every month from 88 to 89. Tender is not back depending on when we can access the station due to snow it will return.

Commissioner's report:

Committee reports: Presented Chief Higgins award for his 41 years of service.

Old Business: None

New Business: Need to vote Conner in for probation. Conner has been voted in. Kevin Higgins was voted in a lifetime member.

Good of the order: Presented Chief Higgins award for his 41 years of service. Presented M. Knopp a reward for his service in the department. Chief Doleshel was given a new chief helmet and badge and has token over for Chief Higgins due to retirement. Passed out stipend checks tonight to everyone. Thank you all for your service this past year.
