Call Debrief:

Brush/Stump fire up in Luke Umek road one take away was we should have used water before foam. Female with swollen foot was belligerent it took some convincing to allow us to give her aid. 19 aid calls in September 11 were aid.

Officer's Reports:

Lt. Giroux:

When charging hose for foam be careful, the hose kicks much more than a hose charged for water. Need to fill gas tanks at sta 89. Brian will be point of contact for any questions on training.

Lt. Wolf:

Release cords on the air packs in E88 were thru the handle it needs to be on the outside of the pack handle. Rodeo 10/24

Capt. Doleshel:

Trucks will be going in for annual maintenance.

Capt. Moore:

Cleaned up engineer compartment on T89 and rearranged the rear compartment.

Chief Higgins:

We aren't not using dedicated hose round-about anymore. Will send out email with letter denoting the new covid testing sites. Burn to learn class coming in January. We need ten attendees to have the class. N95 masks are still scarce so we will be using the new sanitizer. N95 mask can be sanitized five times. After using them on a call place mask in brown paper bag with your name. Mark the mask so you know how many times it has been sanitized.

Commissioner's report: None

Committee reports: No Christmas party or Santa run.
